

It's very hard to bear the loss When loved ones go away, But may the thoughts of many friends,
In some way, help today;
And may your cherished memories Bring comfort to you, too, And help to make your loved one seem Still very close to you.

Dear Kitty,

You, alone, know the deep affection and respect I had for Bob and Jim certain he was aware of it also - I'm very, very sorry that he is gone -

Your courageous fight to help Bob and your unselfish devotion to him during his many months of incurable illness was a wonderful thing - May the future hold nothing but good luck and good fortune for so gallant a little girl -

Take good care of yourself, Kitty, and know that I have been thinking of you and yours constantly -

Sincerely,
Eddie

Dearest Kitty:

You have been on my mind and heart - and in my prayers so constantly it is difficult to realize I haven't really transmitted my thoughts to you.

I am truly sorry you are having to undergo such trials and sorrow so young in life - but you have met every obstacle and every occasion so bravely you have been an inspiration to many people. But, best of all, you've been given the physical strength and moral courage to be a wonderful help, comfort and companion to your husband when he depended so much on you. I am certain the good God who gave your this fortitude will give you consolation and peace for the future.

When the sharp edges of shock and grief have subsided a bit - I am quite sure you will have a thankful dream of happiness that you were able to meet your obligations so magnificently. We are all proud of you.
Much love to you and the three boys.

Devotedly,

Dear Kitty,
We were so sorry to hear about Robert.
I don't know what to say that might be comforting, but we do want you to know we are thinking of you. He was such a fine man and so well-liked. You can be proud that he accomplished in his lifetime what many who live years longer fail to do. And remember, that although we some times can't understand the way God works, somehow everything works

Dear Kitty:

The delay in writing you has been purely intentional because those dearest to you have given the loving care. I wanted to write when you had resumed just daily living.

My thoughts have turned to you so often and I hope, with all my heart, the necessary strength and understanding has been yours. I was distressed in the spring when you told me of Bob's illness as I knew then how much character you would be required to use. Dora has written how wonderfully you managed in all respects.

Summer has implanted more nerves and streaks of silver in me. Can hardly wait for the school bell to ring and things settle to problems of early breakfast and books. I imagine you have a busy time ahead to get your children in various schools. Isn't it a shame we send them for education and then never think they have intelligence enough to arrange matters for school entrance?

Please remember me to your parents and Mrs. Bruce. I have such fond memories of you all.
I hate to remind you I've been thirty years of friendship!
My love to you, always "Maggie"

Dearest Kitty,
Just to let you know Ann and I are thinking of you at this time of your greatest sorrow and to extend to you our loving sympathy. Words fail to express what we feel. We wish there were something we could do for you at this time.
We appreciated your wire Thursday evening and regretted very much we couldn't come down. There was no chance of getting away from the Reading Clinic as there are no substitute teachers available.

We just have to be there and stay well.
You have a hard task before you but God will give you strength to carry on. You have your boys and Berta and that will help.
All our love, as ever, Annie & Ann and carried the load as you did together this ~~past~~ year and because it was this way it will bring you comfort I hope for nothing can ever separate you love -

Please give your boys our deepest sympathy, and for you Kitty our love and prayers - Ret & Dad -

like an ocean wave and and put it into words.
Some things are without words they are so rich so wonderful and so sure - and I don't know where the line is between Bob's passing and your being a part of it all - no one has stated

Dear Kitty -

There is no way begin this letter to or to end it to all the things I would like to put down in fact there is so much to say that it is

Dear Kitty

at a time like this

I realize words are a small comfort but I did want you to know that you and the boys are very much in our thoughts and prayers. We have always thought of you all as our true friends and I do wish I could be on hand

Oh of some help to you - with the help of your faith I feel sure you will be sustained and comforted - with love
